Chairperson Announcement

4th October 2025

IHRA (NZ) Incorporated announces that Rod Benjes has stepped down from his role as Chairperson, effective immediately. Rod has made the decision to step away in order to focus on personal and professional commitments.

During his two-month tenure, Rod provided thoughtful leadership and valuable guidance, helping to shape the direction of IHRA (NZ) Incorporated during a pivotal time. His contribution, though brief has left a lasting impression on the Board and wider IHRA community.

The Board is very sad to see Rod depart, we are incredibly grateful for the energy and insight he brought to the role, and we wish him all the very best in his future endeavours.

In the interim, Chelsea Burns will assume the responsibilities of the Chairperson. IHRA (NZ) Incorporated remains committed to its mission and continues to move forward with confidence and purpose.

IHRA NZ will be soon advertising a new role. Details about the position and application process will be released shortly.

Kind Regards, IHRA (NZ) Incorporated Board
